Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal law]." Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

Federal officials (a Bivens claim)
 State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)

B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities, secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

Amendments 3, 8

There is absolutely no law library access here.

D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

Each defendant deliberately allowed Taylor McMillan to be in charge of passing out meds after grievance was filed.

You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

A. If the events giving rise to your claim arose outside an institution, describe where and when they arose.

B. If the events giving rise to your claim arose in an institution, describe where and when they arose.

On Sunday, June 12, 2022, I received one (1) of (2) doses after arriving and one (1) of 3 doses on Tuesday June 14, 2022. I also received a dose of someone else's meds on Tuesday, June 14, 2022

Severe pain in Joints, shortness of breath for two (2) days — Blood pressure extremely high — dizziness and potential cardiac arrest. Terrified for two (2) days.

VI.

Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims.

I'm seeking damages in the amount of $10,000 punitive and $10,000 ~~for~~ compensatory in both individual and official capacity from each defendant named in this claim. The pain I had to endure and the mental distress caused by not knowing if I was going to "Drop Dead" at any minute ~~is~~ is worth much more. I'm still experiencing shortness of breath periodically and occasional periods of severe chest pain due to the deliberate actions of the defendants.

From: Mrs Anthony Johnson Dorm 211
S# ~~3886~~

On Tuesday 6-14-2022, Sheriff's staff officer McMillian, passed out medication to the detainees on Dorm 211 around 7:30 am. By the time I got up off the floor and walked to the front door, officer McMillian had left.

I remained standing at the front door until he returned, approximately 5 minutes later. He gave me my medication while I was asking him why did he leave. Qs he dumped my meds in my hand he stated, "because I was in a hurry."

Apparently, Sheriff's staff officer McMillian was still in a hurry because he quickly left after giving me someone else's medications.

I hollered "hey, this is not my medication", as officer McMillian was leaving and he looked at me and just shrugged his shoulders and continued on.

This behavior is in violation of my Constitutional Rights and a deliberate unlawful act.

Today is the second consecutive day this Sheriff's staff employee ~~has~~ has been placed responsible for the dispersing of my medications and the second consecutive day that I have not received them as prescribed.

Unfortunately, a legal process must ensue after this second consecutive denial of my prescribed medications.

Also, Sheriff's staff officer McMillian should not be allowed to disperse my prescribed medications at any time after this consecutive incident.

Thank You!
Sincerely,

CC: Personal File
